

Kentucky Girls State List of City Offices

You must attend all sessions of Girls State to be eligible to run for any offices.

CITY OFFICES

Mayor – Chief Executive of the city, in charge of city council meetings, works with the city clerk on their day to day duties.

City Clerk – Does the roll call for each city council meeting, collects all money for pictures, videos, etc. Calls the roll at each session and reports anyone missing to the Supervisor, Chairman, or Director. Other duties as may be assigned by the Mayor. This is not an elected position.

Commissioner of Health – Conducts room checks at night to make sure that everyone is in their rooms. Conducts wake-up calls for those who do not have an alarm clock. Other duties as may be assigned.

Commissioners of Legislation (2, one from the House and one from the Senate) – Works on the Legislative Committee going over the bills submitted by the Girls State Delegates. Types bill and puts them in order.

Commissioner of Inspiration – Inspires the girls in her city to reflect upon what happens each day. Plans fun things to do and games to play at night during city council meetings once business matters are concluded.

Commissioner of News – Works on the Newspaper staff to get the newspaper out on a timely manner. Serves as a news correspondent for her city.

Commissioner of Community Development – Develops the city seal.

Commissioner of Talent – Encourages the girls to participate in the talent show and the Girls State Chorus. Comes up with an act for the city to do in the talent show, Gets participants together to practice for the talent show and for the Girls State Chorus.

Platform Committee – One selected for each party
Works on developing the platform for their party before election of state officers.

Rules Committee – One selected for each party
Work on developing the rules for conduct of the party convention.

Precinct Workers – Set up the polls for voting. Serve as poll officers. Four precinct workers are selected for each city. These individuals may not run for office other than in the Legislature.